CURRENT MINISTRY

The Jones' have served 16 years in Panama focusing on children's ministries. Their slogan is "Children Reaching Children." Areas of ministry include:

- * KidsQuest Evangelistic Crusades: Thousands of children have heard the gospel and come to Christ in monthly outreaches at local churches through clowns, illusions, games.
- * Teacher Training: Monthly seminars that inspire and instruct leaders to reach and disciple children are presented in Panama City and the nation's interior.
- * Panama's AG Executive Presbytery: Preaches and teaches in the nation's churches and mentors pastors and church leaders.
- * Indigenous People: Reaches Guaymi Indians through outreaches, family retreats and Duima LACC school.

PREVIOUS MINISTRY

The Jones' served two and a half years as youth and children's pastors before sensing God's call to missions. Prior to their missions appointment, they served for two and a half years in a bilingual church.

All four children are actively involved in their ministry. Chloe was born during the Jones' first itineration and Tony, Celina, and Gracie were born in Panama.
